CRUSHING EXPECTATIONS

TOXIC
ENVIRONMENT

A blue-toned illustration of Jesus walking on water. He is in the center, with his arms outstretched. To his right, a large, giant foot is stepping onto the water's surface. In the background, a small boat with several people is visible on the water, and a lightning bolt is in the sky.

“Jesus defies
what the world
calls impossible”

“We do not have to sink into sin. By faith, we can do what society considers impossible”

Point#1:

The Command to Step Out

(Matthew 14:22-29)

Point#2: The Danger of the Wind and Waves

(Matthew 14:30-31)

Walk on the "Sea"

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

“The wind and waves represent the constant pressure of modern culture—the media we consume, the peer pressure at school or work, and the digital noise designed to compromise our faith. When we take our eyes off Jesus and look at how loud the world is, we begin to sink.”

Point#3: The Standard of Purity

(Psalm 119:9)

Walk on the "Sea"

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

“When temptation trapped Joseph, he did not negotiate; he ran out of the house. Joseph chose to walk on the sea of Egyptian culture rather than drown in its compromise. Like Joseph, Romans 10:11 reminds us that anyone who trusts in God will never be put to shame. Choosing holiness never leaves you empty-handed”

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

The background of the top section is a blue-toned illustration. It depicts a man, likely Jesus, walking on the surface of a turbulent sea. He is shown from the waist up, with his arms raised in a gesture of power or blessing. In the distance, a small sailboat is visible on the horizon under a dark, stormy sky with a lightning bolt. The overall mood is dramatic and miraculous.

To walk on the sea of this culture, you must take active steps daily to protect your heart:

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

Action 1:

Guard the Gates:

Actively monitor what enters your eyes and ears through social media, music, and television.

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

Action2:

Memorize the Blueprint

Read and memorize scripture consistently so your mind filters situations through God's truth rather than emotion.

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

Action3:

Flee Temptation(Lock In):

Like Joseph, remove yourself physically and digitally from environments or conversations that trigger compromise.

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

The background of the top section is a blue-toned illustration. It depicts a man with a beard and long hair, wearing a simple robe, walking on a turbulent sea. He has his arms raised in a gesture of faith or prayer. Above him, a massive, giant foot is shown stepping down into the water, with a wooden plank or path leading from the foot towards the man. In the far distance, a small sailboat is visible on the horizon under a sky with a single lightning bolt. The overall scene conveys a sense of divine intervention and miraculous power.

Action 4:

Build a Holy Circle:

Surround yourself with believers who hold you accountable and encourage your walk with God.

The background of the top section is a blue-toned illustration. It depicts Jesus walking on the surface of a turbulent sea. He is shown from the waist down, with his feet visible as he steps on the water. In the far distance, a small boat with several people is visible on the horizon under a dark, stormy sky with a lightning bolt. The overall mood is dramatic and powerful.

Action 5:

Confess and Reset:

If you stumble, immediately cry out to Jesus in repentance, accept His grace, and stand back up.

Walk on the "Sea"

by Rev. Eddie Jjumba

The background of the top section is a blue-toned illustration. It depicts a giant foot, similar to the one from the movie 'The Ten Commandments', descending from the sky and stepping onto a turbulent sea. A man is shown in the water, reaching up towards the foot. In the distance, a small sailboat is visible on the waves. The overall scene conveys a sense of divine power and the potential for deception if one does not act on the word.

Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.
